

DePaul University
Student Government Association
Resolution
Created: April 23, 2006

WHEREAS the Coca-Cola Company has met DePaul University's request to participate in an independent, third party investigation into the allegations in Columbia, and

WHEREAS the Coca-Cola Company has been dismissed by a US Federal Judge from the lawsuit pertaining to the Allegations, and

WHEREAS the effort to ban Coke has failed to attract widespread agreement on campus, and

WHEREAS DePaul University has no relationship with the Coca-Cola Company operations in Columbia, rather with an independently owned and operated local bottler,

LET IT BE RESOLVED that the Student Government Association of DePaul University hereby ends its boycott of Coca-Cola products and actively seeks to have the Fair Business Practices Committee, the Board of Trustees, and the University extend its' existing contract with the local Coca-Cola bottler until such time as the United Nations determines the merit of the charges.
